

Do we have to prepare a booklet?

While a booklet is not essential, it is a very convenient and welcome support in following the ceremony and a very nice family souvenir. Preparing the booklet yourselves and choosing the readings and prayers is an excellent way of entering more meaningfully into the celebration.

The priest celebrant here will gladly help you with selecting readings, prayers, etc.